Polemarch Cleveland Ferguson, III, Esq.
Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.
Jacksonville Alumni Chapter
Post Office Box 40625
Jacksonville, Florida 32203

Dear Polemarch Ferguson:

Once again, and in fine tradition, the Jacksonville Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. is in consideration for "Chapter of the Year". I wish to commend you and your brothers for your dedication and support of our community, a commitment demonstrated in real and positive action, as evidenced by your impressive and inspiring agenda of activities. Kappa Alpha Psi continues to show a clear determination to uplift the citizens through your social, philanthropic and scholarship activities, that has indeed enriched many lives for generations to come. Of primary importance herein, your actions of today serve to instill an immediate sense of service, which has instant and lasting impact. This "service" has been part of a rich and enduring heritage which is truly the mantra of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., all its chapters, and of significant importance, is this outstanding local chapter.

It is noteworthy to re-state that your previous designations as "Chapter of the Year" is evidentiary proof of the extensive and rich history Kappa Alpha Psi, Inc. has enjoyed and earned in Jacksonville, Florida, and I am sure this tradition will continue. You continue to earn accolades, and justifiably so, because of the selfless and untiring dedication of your members and the rich tapestry of service weaved long ago by your outstanding predecessors. The tradition continues.

Thank you once again for your service to our community and I am pleased to support you in your quest for this year's "Chapter of the Year".

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Corrine Brown
